

Arabic Pasts: Histories and Historiographies Workshop Schedule

Day One
Thursday, 5 October 2023
Face-to-face and Online

10:00–10:30 am	Welcome: Sarah Bowen Savant and James McDougall
10:30–12:00 pm	Session 1: Administering Justice Chair: Arezou Azad, Oxford University How to Be a Bad Ruler in Tenth Century Baghdad Hugh Kennedy, SOAS University of London Between a Rock and Hard Arabic: Epigraphy & the Public Letters of ‘Abd al-Hamid (d. 750) Nicholas Kyle Longworth, Department of Near Eastern Languages & Civilisations, University of Chicago ‘And to Our Master, the Illustrious Caliph, Belongs the Lofty Resolution Regarding This, If God Wills’: Written Petitions and the Administration of Justice in Fatimid Egypt. Yusuf Umrethwala, Columbia University and Aga Khan University-ISMC
12:00–1:30 pm	Lunch Break
1:30–3:00 pm	Session 2: Digital Tools and Technology Chair: Aslisho Qurboniev, AKU-ISMC Can Digital Tools Help Teach Medieval Islamic History? From Assassin’s Creed Mirage to the Classroom Sarah Slingsluff & Deniz Vural, University of Edinburgh Digitally Capturing the Remnants of the Qaraite dār al-‘ilm in 11th Century Jerusalem Gregor Schwarb & Ronny Vollandt, Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich Technologies of Communicative Media: The Hermeneutics of Technology and its Application to the Study of Early Islamic Intellectual History Kevin Robert Jaques, University of Indiana
3:00–3:15 pm	Coffee Break

3:15–4:15 pm	Session 3: Modelling the Past Chair: Sarah Bowen Savant, AKU-ISMC Modelling the Development of Premodern Islamic Societies from Biographical and Historical Data Maxim Romanov, University of Hamburg Modes of Temporality in Islamicate Collective Biographies: A Comparative Study of Amal al-āmil fī ‘ulāmā’ Jabal ‘Āmil and Lu’lu’at al-Baḥrayn Majid Montazer-Mahdi, The University of Oxford; Institute of Ismaili Studies
4:15–4:30 pm	Coffee Break
4:30–5:30 pm	Session 4: Exploring Commemorations and Memorialisations Chair: Masoumeh Seydi ‘Picture His Torment Before Your Eyes’: Narrative Imagination in Shī‘ī Commemorative Ritual George Warner, Institute of Arab and Islamic Studies University of Exeter Fallibilism and Certainty in Memorializing the History of Islamic Law Kamal R. Ahmed, University of Oxford
5:30–5:45 pm	Coffee Break
5:45–6:30 pm	Book Launch “Literary Spectacles of Sultanship”: Gowaart Van Den Bossche
6:30 pm	End of Day 1

Day Two
Friday, 6 October 2023
Face-to-face and Online

10:30–12:00 pm	Session 1: Versioning Chair: Hugh Kennedy, SOAS University of London Remembering Past against history: What a Tripolitanian Memory Teaches Us Sébastien Garnier, Centre Jean Pépin, CNRS/LibMed ‘Apple of the Eye’: Arabic Histories of Ottoman Iraq in the Early Twentieth Century Zeinab Azarbadegan, Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies, Oxford University Islamic Science in the Arabic History of the West Syrians: Bar Hebraeus’ Mukhtaṣar ta’rīkh al-duwal Jennifer Fiona Griggs, FSCIRE – La Pira Library and Research Center on Islamic History and Doctrines
12:00–1:30 pm	Lunch Break
1:30–3:00 pm	Session 2: Representations, Emulations, and Consolations Chair: James McDougall, Oxford University The Reader Between Loyalty and Faith: Mūsā al-Kāzīm in Imāmī Shī‘ī Historiography Najam Iftikhar Haider, Department of Religion, Barnard College Fatima as a Motif of Contention and Suffering in Islamic Sources Vinay Khetia, Shia Research Institute, Toronto Finding Zaynab in Al Rashad: Incarceration, Collective Memory, and Sectarian Identity in Ba’athist Iraq Noor Zehra Zaidi, University of Maryland, Baltimore County
3:00–3:15 pm	Coffee Break
3:15–4:15 pm	Session 3: Writing History in the Present Chair: Karen Bauer, Institute of Ismaili Studies The Islamist Approach in Contemporary Arabic Historical Writing: Al-Sallabi’s Narrative on Ottoman History as an Example Muna Asenwar, Near and Middle Eastern Studies at the University of Basel The Divine in Action: A Comparative Study of Miracles in Early Abbasid and Byzantine Hagiography Zhicheng Ye, SOAS University of London
4:15–4:30 pm	Coffee Break

4:30–5:30 pm	Session 4: Reconstructing the Past Chair: Kevin Jaques, University of Indiana Hagiography as Autobiography: al-Baydhaq’s Akhbār al-Mahdī Daniel Walting, Claremont McKenna College Historical Providence in View of a Godforsaken Foe: Pious Execration of the Portuguese Encroachment on the Indian Ocean Islamic Ecumene in Sixteenth-Century Arabic Chronicles Gabriel Mathias Soares, University of São Paulo
5:30–5:45 pm	Coffee Break
5:45–6:45 pm	Session 5: Continuities Chair: Jonas Otterbeck, AKU-ISMC Patronage and Households in the Qur’an Karen Bauer, Senior Research Associate, Qur’anic Studies, Institute of Ismaili Studies Feras Hamza, Head of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Wollongong in Dubai; Senior Research Fellow, Qur’anic Studies, Institute of Ismaili Studies Convening a new Cultural History of the Middle East and North Africa: The challenges of bridging disciplines to collaboratively rewrite 1620 years of history Hilary Kalmbach, University of Sussex
6:45 pm	End of Day Two

Enquiries to:

Anjum Alam, ArabicPastsConf@aku.edu

Venue:

The Aga Khan Centre, 10 Handyside Street, N1C 4DN, London.